

30 days to a more confident voice.

Print this workbook or save it on your phone. Each day: one phrase, two gaps to fill, and a speaking task. Say everything out loud. Imperfect English is welcome.

Method: Listen | Copy | Use it in your own life.

What's inside

Day 01

DAY 01 | GREETINGS

Phrase: "Hey, how's it going?"

A warm, everyday hello - more natural than "How are you?" with people you already know.

Tip: Smile, keep it short, then wait. You do not need a long answer.

Words to keep

* how's

DAY 02 | INTRODUCTIONS

Say

Phrase: "I'm Maya. I work in design."

Name + one simple fact. That is a complete introduction.

Tip: Do not list your whole CV. One line is enough to start a conversation.

DAY 03 | SMALL TALK

Phrase: "Crazy weather today, isn't it?"

Weather is the safest small-talk door in English.

Tip: Tag questions ("isn't it?") invite a short reply. You are not giving a forecast.

Words to keep

DAY 04 | AGREEING

Phrase: "That sounds great to me."

Warm agreement without sounding robotic.

Tip: Avoid "I am agree." English uses "I agree" or a feeling phrase.

Words to keep

DAY 05 | THINKING TIME

Phrase: "Let me think about that for a second."

Polite pause so you don't freeze or rush a bad answer.

Tip: A pause is not a failure. Native speakers buy time all day.

DAY 06 | DAILY LIFE

Phrase: "I usually get up around seven."

Simple present + usually = your real routine, not today's exception.

Tip: Pick one time word: usually, always, sometimes. Don't stack three.

Words to keep

DAY 07 | FOOD

Phrase: "Could I get the grilled chicken, please?"

Polite request that sounds like a customer, not a textbook.

Tip: "Could I get...?" is friendlier than "I want". Add please once, not three times.

Words to keep

* polite

DAY 08 | SHOPPING

Phrase: "I'm just looking, thanks."

The kind way to say you don't want help yet.

Tip: Shop assistants approach you. This line keeps things friendly.

I said it out loud today [] Streak day _____

Phrase: "Sorry, could you help me with this?"

Soft opener + clear ask. English likes the cushion word "sorry" even when you did nothing wrong.

Tip: Name the thing you need. Vague "help me" is harder to answer.

Words to keep

* polite

DAY 10 | DIRECTIONS

Phrase: "Is this the right way to the station?"

Check you're on track without a long speech.

Tip: Point with your phone map if you have one. A short check-in is enough.

DAY 11 | PHONE

Phrase: "Hi, this is Alex. Is now a good time?"

Name yourself first. Then check they can talk.

Tip: Don't start with "It's me" unless they definitely have your number saved.

DAY 12 | WORK

Phrase: "I'll take care of that."

A confident way to own a task without over-promising.

Tip: Say it only if you mean it. Then put a time: by 3, by Friday.

Words to keep

DAY 13 | FEELINGS

Phrase: "I'm a bit overwhelmed, to be honest."

Honest, adult, not dramatic. "A bit" keeps it shareable.

Tip: Feelings are allowed at work if you keep them short and useful.

DAY 18 | APOLOGIES

Say

Phrase: "I'm sorry about that - it won't happen again."

Own it, keep it short, say the change. No long speech.

Tip: Don't add "but you also...". A real apology does not hide behind a but.

DAY 29 | FLUENCY

Phrase: "You know what? That actually makes sense."

A thinking-out-loud yes. It shows you changed with the idea.

Tip: Fluency is reaction speed, not fancy words. Collect 5 reaction sounds: right, fair, makes sense, no way, love that.
